

Grade 1 performance expectations in Social Studies

By the end of this academic year, Students will be able to:

- Develop good manners at home and school.
- Differentiate between good manners and bad manners at home.
- Relate between good manners and respect.
- Identify different ways to show respect.
- Differentiate between good manners and bad manners at school.
- Understand what it means to care for others.
- Relate between happiness and care.
- Discover the importance of being honest.
- Identify different ways to show honesty.
- Differentiate between actions that show honesty and actions that do not.
- Reflect positive citizenship characteristics in daily behaviors.
- Identify different ways to be responsible.
- Learn how to be a good citizen.
- Differentiate between accepted and unaccepted manners.
- Identify family members.
- Differentiate between immediate and distant members.

- Understand the importance of family roles.
- Identify roles toward friends.
- Learn how to be a good friend.
- Understand the importance of school rules.
- List the special things about one's country.
- Compare between countries.
- Differentiate between landforms and water bodies and locate both on a map.
- Differentiate between a need and a want.