

Grade 2 performance expectations in Social Studies

By the end of this academic year, Students will be able to:

- Understand the difference between maps and globes and the best uses for each.
- Identify the four main directions and how to use them to help find their way.
- Know the important things about the region known as Northern Africa.
- Give details about the culture, history and geography of Egypt.
- Realize that technological advances have changed our lives.
- Get to know what life was like during the Stone Age.
- Know the difficulties involved in living in the Ice Age.
- Understand the changes to our lives that might occur in the future.
- Explore what the environment is, and how we need to protect it.